STRIKE ORDER WITHDRAWN BY LEWIS

'WE CAN'T FIGHT GOVERNMENT' SAY MINER'S HEADS

After All Night Session Officials Vote to Obey Mandate of Court.

RECALL STRIKE ORDER OPENS WAY FOR AGREEMENT

Prediction Made That Some Miners Will Not Obey New Order.

Indianapolis, Nov. 11.—An order calling off the nation-wide bituminous coal strike was to be issued today, following the decision of the general committee of the United Mine Workers of America early this morning to obey the mandate of United States district attorney, Judge A. B. Anderson, issued here last Saturday. The general committee, composed of international officers, district presidents and members of the executive board, add scale committee reached its decision at 4:10 this morning and adjourned five minutes later to reconvene at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

"Gentlemen, we will comply with the mandate of the court. We do it under protest. We are Americans. We cannot fight our government. That is all."

This was the statement of John L. Lewis, acting president of the mine workers, announcing the decision, and other members of the conference, apparently worn out by their long hours of discussion declined to add to the statement of their chief and soon dispersed.

When the order, calling off the strike, will be drafted could not be learned early today, but, under the order of Judge Anderson, it must be submitted to the court for his approval at 10 o'clock this morning and he on its way (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

RAZE BUILDING FOR NEW BLOCK

Workmen Tearing Away Old Buildings Which Have Been Landmark for More than 25 Years.

Workmen who have been dismantling buildings in the rear of the Pullman building in West Main street started today to tear down the store room buildings and will soon have them leveled, ready for the cement workers on the new block to be built by Robert A. White, who has a ninety-nine year old Pullman on the site and who will build a modern garage, in fact three of them with all the latest devices and improvements and the facilities for handling automobiles. If the weather remains favorable it is hoped to push the work to a rapid completion so that the tenants who have leased the rooms can occupy them shortly after the first of the year. The Hanna Oldsmobile company will occupy one room, Roy Baird another and Dick Curry the third and largest room which will have an "L" wing back of the old Swisher building.

YOUNGSTOWN MILLS OPERATING 75 PER CENT

Youngstown, Nov. 11.—Steel mill operations here have been increased from 50 per cent of capacity to 75 per cent as a result of the opening of new development with the beginning of the week, according to industrial observers here. The first merchant furnace to be reopened was put in blast at Struthers, while the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company and the Republic Iron and Steel company started another furnace, it is reported. There are now 14 furnaces in blast out of 26. More open hearth furnaces were also operating today, it was stated and companies claim that all the finishing mills in the city are working except one—the Brown-Bonell mill of the Republic Iron and Steel company. For the first time in more than a week no disorders were reported.

No report has been received from the committee of strikers who are said to be at Pittsburgh to offer a proposal whereby they could return to work.

WOULD DEPOSE SULTAN.
Berlin, Nov. 11.—(Via London).—A plot to depose the sultan of Turkey has been discovered, says a Constantinople dispatch dated Monday received here today.

SAYS CONVENTION MUST APPROVE STRIKE RECALL

Pittsburgh, Nov. 11.—Opinion was divided today as to what action members of the United States Mine Workers of America in the western and central Pennsylvania coal fields would take on the decision of their executives at Indianapolis. Officials of the union at Pittsburgh headquarters said a recall of the strike order would not become effective until the convention that voted for the walkout could be reconvened to approve it.

LABOR LEADERS SILENT ON NEW STRIKE SITUATION

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Wilson probably will telegraph both the coal operators and officials of the United Mine Workers, asking them to get together and settle their differences, it was said today at the White House. At the same time the president probably will renew his offer of the services of the government toward mediation.

Labor leaders here who got their first word from Indianapolis through press dispatches, were distinctly surprised in the turning of events—the first big happening on Armistice Day. Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor when told of the announcement by Acting President Lewis of the miners' organization, refused to say anything.

NEWARK IS QUIET ON ARMISTICE DAY

Serenity Is In Contrast With Wild Delirium of One Year Ago—Boy Scouts Only Celebrants.

Rattle! ding! zing! Biff! Clash! Don't you remember that din with which the United States greeted November last year. It is the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice with Germany.

War has not been officially declared at an end, but Newark was exceptionally quiet today in celebration of the event. Many of the surrounding cities are having celebrations. In many instances it was made the occasion for an official welcome home to the soldiers, who with a few exceptions, have all been returned from foreign countries. The day has not been made a legal holiday, but this will probably be done later.

In Newark the only event marking the day was the field day of the Boy Scouts, which is being held at the White Athletic field. The Zanesville Scouts came to Newark to participate making the trip in motor trucks.

The Old Guard will attend the program at the White field and at the close will give a dress parade.

SILENCE MARKS HOUR OF END OF GREAT WAR

Cleveland, Nov. 11.—Cleveland became a city of silence at eleven o'clock this morning as Armistice Day when all of its activities ceased and men and women in office, home, shop and street faced the east, standing at attention and maintaining silence for two minutes in honor of the Cleveland soldiers who never came back from the great war. The American Legion program of exercises centered at the public square, the G. A. R., Spanish-American war veterans and high school cadets participated.

AMERICAN LEGION LEADS YOUNGSTOWN CELEBRATION

Youngstown, Nov. 11.—Following a flag raising on the public square by the American Legion at which taps was played while the flag flew at half mast, services were held in a theater here today by the American Legion in commemoration of armistice day. A "community sing" followed the services, in which hundreds of school children participated under the direction of the Monday Musical club.

STOCKS RESPOND TO NEWS OF STRIKE'S END

New York, Nov. 11.—Rescinding of the coal strike order imparted buoyant tone to stocks at the opening of the day session. Gains of 2 to 6 points were made by leaders, notably steels, equipments, oils and motors. Rails, shipbuilding and numerous miscellaneous issues shared in the advance.

DRYS ARE BEATEN ON RATIFICATION; RECOUNT ORDERED

Majority of 641 Found In Official Figures Against Proposal.

RETURN RECORDS TO NINE COUNTIES FOR CORRECTION

Figures From 34 Other Counties Must Be Verified.

Columbus, Nov. 11.—Ohio last Tuesday voted against ratifying the federal prohibition amendment by a majority of 641, according to complete official returns received today by the secretary of state. The vote was:

For ratification 499,879.
Against 500,520.

Secretary of State Smith announced that some errors are apparent in the complete official vote and that the official returns from nine counties will be sent back to county election boards for correction. He also announced that the official figures from 34 counties would have to be verified.

James A. White, manager of the Ohio Dry Federation, has asked for a recount of the vote.

MORE REDS ARRESTED BY POLICE IN AKRON

Akron, Nov. 11.—Two more alleged radical leaders were arrested last night by federal operatives and lodged in jail. Close guard was maintained around county and city buildings. There was nothing to indicate that violence was attempted by sympathizers. One man of the 27 arrested Sunday afternoon has been released. The others are being held for deportation.

ARMISTICE DAY "LEST WE FORGET"

SOLDIERS RIOT WITH CROWD IN IRELAND

Cork, Nov. 11.—Constant collisions between the military and civilians here culminated in serious rioting last night when soldiers, enraged in consequence of frequent attacks upon them, broke through the police lines and came into conflict with the crowd.

LINDSLEY PRESIDES AT LEGION CONVENTION

Minneapolis, Min., Nov. 11.—Cleveland was chosen for the next convention of the American Legion over San Francisco at the national convention this afternoon.

Indianapolis was chosen today for permanent national headquarters of the American Legion at the first convention of the legion here today, defeating Washington, D. C., on the second ballot.

Minneapolis, Nov. 11.—The first convention of the American Legion got underway yesterday.

The importance of decisions which would be expected of the various committees was emphasized by Chairman Henry D. Lindsley of Texas, who declared the Legion would effect the trend of thought of the American people as no other organization has ever done.

The report of the legion advance committee advocating laws to curb the activities of radical aliens, investigation of the present critical industrial situation, and definite pronouncement as to what legislation ex-service men may expect of congress was presented by Chairman Lindsley and Secretary Erick Fisher Wood.

Massachusetts was awarded sixty-five votes, the largest of any state delegation by the committee on credentials. The committee seated four delegates from Mexico.

GEN. PERSHING POINTS TO DEEP MEANING OF DAY

General March Issues Message to Veterans of Great War.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The first anniversary of the signing of the armistice and the ending of hostilities in the world war was observed generally today throughout the United States.

Governors of nearly a dozen states had proclaimed a legal holiday while many mayors through proclamations and public statements called attention to the significance of the day.

President Wilson, in a statement addressed to all Americans, declared that "reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of the things from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of nations."

General Pershing and Secretaries Baker, Daniels and Lansing also pointed out in statements to the American people the deep and solemn meaning of the day, while General March, chief of staff in a message "to the veterans" asserted:

"The first anniversary of the armistice finds the country holding in most affectionate remembrance the work you performed so cheerfully and gallantly during your service here and overseas. The story of your participation in the war will inspire future generations.

"You have now turned your attention to civil problems, in which the lessons you learned in war may be aptly applied. Patriotism, self control, and unity of action make for the future well-being of the nation."

COURT APPROVES MESSAGE DRAWN BY UNION HEADS

JUDGE ANDERSON CALLS IT A "GOOD FAITH EFFORT" TO OBEY MANDATE OF FEDERAL COURT.

CABINET MEMBER TO CALL MINERS AND OPERATORS INTO CONFERENCE

Secretary of Labor Wilson Announces He Will Bring Two Factions Together to Negotiate Wage Agreement—Notice to Locals to End Strike Mailed Tonight.

Washington, Nov. 11.—"I shall immediately call the miners and operators together to negotiate a wage agreement," Secretary of Labor Wilson said today after a meeting of President Wilson's cabinet.

Indianapolis, Nov. 11.—United States District Judge A. B. Anderson, at 10 o'clock this morning, approved the order of the officials of the United Mine Workers of America, rescinding the strike order of October 15. Attorneys for the miners promised to try to have it in the mails by six o'clock this evening. This action was taken following a session of the general committee of the miners, which decided early today to comply with the mandate of the court issued last Saturday.

Judge Anderson characterized the order as a "good faith effort" to comply with his mandate. The text of the order follows:

"Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11, 1919.
"To the officials and members of the United Mine Workers of America:
Dear Sirs and Brothers: In obedience to the mandate issued on November 8 by the United States court, district of Indiana, Judge A. B. Anderson presiding, the undersigned hereby advise you that the order of October 15, directing a cessation of operations in the bituminous coal fields of our jurisdiction, is withdrawn and cancelled.
Yours fraternally,
(Signed)
"WILLIAM GREEN,
Secretary-Treasurer.
"JOHN L. LEWIS,
President."

The order to rescind was presented to the court by Henry Warrum, Indianapolis, attorney for the miners. After the court proceedings, Mr. Warrum, G. L. Grant, P. S. Smith, Arkansas, H. S. Huebner, Albia, Iowa, associated counsel, then issued a statement in the presence of the government attorneys in which the position of the mine workers was stated.

While plainly showing their relief, administration officials said the action of the union officials voting to obey the mandate of the federal court at Indianapolis ordering the strike called off was what they had expected from the first.

Officials of the American Federation of Labor showed surprise but would not comment. They said a statement might be issued later by President Gompers or the executive council of the federation. Some administration officials said the mine action had put the issue squarely up to the coal operators. Representatives of the offices here, however, had no statement to make, except:

GEN. WOOD SPEAKER ON ARMISTICE PROGRAM

Cincinnati, Nov. 11.—Armistice Day was observed here with an elaborate program in Music Hall, Major General Leonard Wood was the principal speaker. A program comprising representatives of all the organizations that engaged in war work and service featured the exercises. Fort Thomas soldiers in front of Music Hall fired a volley at 11 o'clock the hour when hostilities ceased. Business houses also suspended operations for five minutes at that hour.

YOUNGSTOWN POLICE ARREST TWO RUSSIANS

Youngstown, Nov. 11.—Two more alleged anarchists were arrested today by agents of the department of justice. The men are Russians. Thirty-two prisoners are now held at the county jail as a result of the anti-red campaign here. Government agents maintain their silence as to the charges against the men or the evidence obtained.

COUNCIL MAY COMBINE 2 JOBS

Informal Meeting Is Held To Discuss Plan to Combine Offices of Service and Safety Director.

The city council met last evening at the call of the chairman of the finance committee. It was an informal meeting and after discussing city problems, went into star chamber session to discuss ways and means to meet the deficit now existing in the city's finances.

The matter of combining the two offices of service and safety director was discussed and it is probable that legislation may be introduced along that line at a future meeting of council.

Several of the council members are of the opinion that the office of several of the clerks to heads of departments could well be abolished and quite a saving could be accomplished in that manner.

The matter of increasing the mayor's salary after Jan. 1 was also discussed and that also will be settled at a future council meeting.

REPUBLICANS TO SELECT PLACE FOR NEXT CONVENTION

Washington, Nov. 11.—Chairman Will H. Hayes today issued a call for the Republican national committee to meet at 11 a. m. in Washington, D. "MARRIED STRANGERS" STARTS NOV. 17TH.

Frances Duval's new story "Married Strangers" of compelling interest to men and women alike will appear in this newspaper. The Advocate has just purchased the right of publication which will begin with the issue of November 17th.

A girl, young, independent, impulsive, thrilling with life and romance of war meets a newly-made young officer and marries him after a whirlwind courtship. There is a three-day honeymoon and he sails for France. Sustained by the tonic of patriotism of flying flags and crashing bands and long olive drab columns marching away to face death on the battlefields of France, she lives him unquestionably through his two years' absence. Then he returns, a stranger. Tastes, training habits, the slow steps to understanding over which they had leaped with youthful arrogance rear ugly heads. How they solved their problems and reached the basis on which a real marriage is founded constitute the story.

"Married Strangers" is by the same author who wrote "The Adventures of a Married Flirt."

Watch for the opening chapter on Monday, November 17th. This attractive story will be presented in short installments from day to day beginning next Monday.

WILL ORDER ARMY STORES FOR CITY

Mayor Atherton Unable to Get Samples But Probably Will Bring Quantity of Stuff to Newark.

Mayor H. A. Atherton did not secure samples of army goods from Columbus yesterday owing to the fact that the officer in charge, Colonel Merritt, was engaged on a court martial and could not take care of him. The mayor has decided to order a car of supplies from Columbus, using his own judgment after interviewing several scores of people as to just what is most needed.

There is a long list of supplies to select from among which are the following:

Bacon at 20 cents per pound.
Canned vegetables of all kinds.
Cinnamon, 1-4-pound cans, 7c.
Cornstarch, 4c per can.
Cornmeal, white, 10-lb. bag, 35c.
Eggs, No. 1, 14c.
Extract, lemon, 8-oz., 33c bottle.
Extract, vanilla, 8-oz., 33c bottle.
Flour, 10-lb. bag, 50c.
Macaroni, 5-lb. package, 42c.
Pickles, 7c quart.
Pumpkin, 3 and 6c per can.
Soup, clam chowder, 6c per can.
Soup, mock turtle, 6c per can.
Teas of all kinds, 45c per lb.

Mayor Atherton has checked off some of the goods which will probably order and which include arctic, wool blankets new and reclaimed, cotton mixed new and reclaimed and which are quoted at from $3 per pair to $5 and $6 each; rubber boots, heavy and drawers and undershirts from 30c to $1 per pair; gloves, 20c; overalls, combination, $2.50 per pair; wool and cotton socks at from 12-12 to 50c per pair; bath towels, 45c each; huck towels, 20c each.

Then there are safes, stable brooms, brushes, candles, ash and garbage cans or assortments, cups, kettles, leggings, pencils, picks, spades, stocks and dies, whips, stiffs and many other things too numerous to mention.

The mayor will give due notice as to the time of arrival and date of sale of the articles which he orders for the municipal market.

fare of the country as well as for success in battle. You have stood fast under fire and today you are expected to stand as firmly in aiding your government and establishing the doctrine of true Americanism so they will endure forever. Having passed through the great struggle, you are an example of idealism to coming generations; you must continue to be a good example of the glorious spirit which actuated you in your fight for liberty.

"Some of you are still in uniform, some of you are in civilian clothes; respect the uniform you wore and honor the country and flag for which you fought."

Washington observed the day with exercises centering about the planting of two memorial trees in Lafayette Square opposite the White House. Members of the cabinet and Generals Pershing and March, who arranged to take part in the ceremonies while Rear Admiral Grayson had given assurances that should President Wilson's condition permit the chief executive would be allowed to view the exercises from a window in the White House.

Flags of the United States and France which flew over the American naval headquarters at Brest during the war floated over the Force public school here where Quentin Roosevelt was a student while his father was president. In memory of the young aviator, who gave his life for his country in France, pupils of the school planned to plant a memorial tree with exercises, at which was to be read a telegram sent by Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, expressing the appreciation of the Roosevelt family for the school's action.

President Wilson's message follows:

To My Fellow Countrymen:

A year ago today our enemies laid down their arms in accordance with an armistice, which rendered them impotent to renew hostilities, and gave to the world an assured opportunity to reconstruct its shattered order and to work out in peace a new and juster set of international relations. The soldiers and people of the European allies had fought and endured for more than four years to uphold the barrier of civilization against the aggressions of armed force. We ourselves had been in the conflict something more than a year and a half. With splendid forgetfulness of mere personal concerns we remodeled our industries, concentrated our financial resources, increased our agricultural output, and assembled a great army, so that at the last our power was a decisive factor in the victory. We were able to bring the vast resources, material and moral of a great and free people to the assistance of the associates in Europe, who had suffered and sacrificed without limit in the cause for which we fought.

Out of this victory there arose new possibilities of political freedom and economic concert. The war showed us the strength of great nations acting together for high purposes, and the victory of arms foretells the enduring conquest which can be made in furtherance of the common interests of men. To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with the pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service, and with gratitude for the victory both because of the thing from which it has freed us, and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of nations.

to the membership by 6 o'clock this evening. So far as could be learned no committee was appointed at the conference to write the order.

The general committee had been in session since shortly after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, taking only brief recesses for lunch and tea. The proceedings were interrupted during the afternoon session by the appearance of United States Marshal Mark Stoen and his deputies, who served 33 of the officials with copies of the temporary injunction, issued Saturday, and returnable December 1. The writs in the restraining order were made returnable November 20.

During the day approaches to the entrance of the conference hall were carefully guarded by a sergeant-at-arms and during recesses a man remained on guard in the hall, but in none of the approaches to the conference the sergeant-at-arms disappeared.

The speeches at times were impassioned and voices from the hall rose above the hubbub of the hotel in which the conference was held, but only a word now and then was distinguishable. It is understood that all phases of the question were argued and the effect various decisions might have on the organization of the miners was according to members not a vote was taken on any subject until the action early today was decided upon.

Shortly after the conference adjourned, President Lewis and William Green, secretary-treasurer, held a long conference in the parlor of the hotel and later Mr. Lewis was seen pacing up and down the floor with head bowed. The miners and the operators after this conference came rapidly.

The recall of the strike order will open the way immediately for a resumption of the negotiations between the miners and the operators as the operators have announced that they would be ready to consider a new wage agreement at any time the strike order was withdrawn.

It is also understood that the question of arbitration entered largely into the discussion in the final stages of the meeting, but the miners position on this subject was not announced.

The question of just how many of the coal miners would obey the order recommending the strike was problematical early today. In some districts it was considered that the resumption of work would be general, while in others it would be only partial and in some, it was said, the return would be very slow.

The meeting was probably the most momentous ever held by the miners organization, if not the most weighty ever conducted by a labor organization in this country, for in the view of labor leaders, it was to determine whether an organization would be forced by governmental pressure through the courts to discontinue a strike, when apparently all the members of the union were behind the walkout, which was being conducted without any form of violence or disorder.

Labor in general, as represented by the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, had offered its unqualified support to the miners strike, while the operators, on the other hand, a federal court order had been issued to compel the balance and this fact gave miners representatives who favored holding out an argument which weighed heavily with some of their colleagues.

On the other hand the president's designation of the strike as unlawful, placed the coal workers in the position of defying the government of the United States. The miners had been off the strike and, aside from the consequences attaching to disobedience of the federal court order, many were adverse to considering anything which could be construed as a form of Americanism.

There was no limit on the debate in the conference and many of delegates spoke at length and some more than once on various subjects.

LABOR LEADERS

Five of the miners had been working for hours to hear what happened, likewise was silent, and other officials at federation headquarters declined to comment on the settlement. Some officials said a statement might be issued later in the day by President Gompers or the executive council.

There was much discussion among labor leaders as to how the miners themselves might view the action of the executive committee of the miners in calling off the strike. One of the spokesmen for the union said large numbers probably would go back to work today and stay out tomorrow while many of the local workmen tomorrow.

Dan W. Sims, special United States district attorney, representing the government in the injunction proceedings against the miners, stated that the next step of the government probably would be to procure a court order compelling operators and miners at which negotiations for a wage agreement would be discussed.

Failure to get together on the question of wages and working conditions by the miners and operators, he predicted, would be followed by appointment of a mediator or arbitrator by the government.

Asked in what way the government might force the operators to do their part in settling the controversy, Mr. Sims declared that the operators in several instances, were under contract to furnish coal to the government and that any lack of good faith on their part would cause irreparable damage to the government and thus bring them under the provisions of the Lever law.

The statement of the attorney follows:

"The operators have repeatedly declared that they were ready to enter into negotiations with the miners if the strike order were withdrawn. The government has taken the position that in the vindication of its own supremacy the strike order must be withdrawn before they would take any steps to comply with the provisions of the Lever law. The issue has been submitted to the court and in compliance with the court's ruling the strike order has been canceled and withdrawn. It seems to me that good faith on the part of the operators requires them to meet the miners' representatives at once for the purpose of negotiating a settlement of the wage controversy, and that good faith on the part of the government requires it to see that such a resumption of negotiations is had at once and concluded without delay."

Although delegates to the meeting of the miners and operators were sworn to secrecy as to details of the proceedings during their protracted sessions, it was learned from a well authenticated source that there was bitter opposition to the resumption of work. One of the most complicating features of the situation, it was said, was the action of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor in Washington in declaring its support of the miners strike, the federation council's statement being used by some as an argument against calling off the strike.

COURT APPROVES

plaining that any pronouncement would come from Thomas T. Brewster of St. Louis, head of the scale committee.

The original demands of the United Mine Workers, which brought about the strike of approximately 425,000 bituminous coal miners of the United States were drafted by the scale committee of the Cleveland convention of the organization held last September, which also adopted the following resolution:

"We recommend that in event a satisfactory wage agreement is not secured for the central competitive field (Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and western Pennsylvania) before November 1, 1919, to replace the one now in effect, that the international officers be authorized and are hereby instructed to call a general strike of all bituminous miners and mine workers throughout the United States, the same to become effective November 1, 1919."

A point of dispute of the miners demands included a 50 percent increase in wages, a six-hour day from bank to bank, a five-day week and time and a half for overtime and on Sundays and legal holidays.

The joint wage conference of the operators and mine workers met in Philadelphia October 9 and adjourned October 12, failing to reach an agreement. The call for the strike at midnight, October 31, was issued from the international headquarters of the union here October 15.

Then followed unsuccessful efforts of Secretary of Labor to bring about settlement of the controversy, and later the statement of President Wilson that the strike was unlawful.

The strike call remained in effect and a general committee of the mine workers officials—the same which this morning agreed to comply with the mandate of Judge Anderson and rescind the strike order—refused to withdraw it, contending it had no authority to do so. On the same day, October 31, the government took a hand in the controversy and obtained an order from United States District Judge Anderson restraining officers of the mine workers from directing or encouraging the strike which automatically became effective at midnight that night and was responded to by approximately 425,000 union miners.

A number of officials of the organization including President Lewis and Secretary Treasurer William Green were served with writs, which were returnable November 1, to go to the court and show cause why they should not be restrained from continuing in effect and the strike benefit funds of the organization were tied up under the restraining order.

Last Thursday attorneys for the miners filed motions for the dismissal of the restraining order than at the hearing proposed a postponement in the hope, it was said, that the strike could be settled out of court, but the government objected and the court overruled the motion to dismiss. On the government's showing, Judge Anderson issued the temporary injunction with the order for the calling off of the strike.

The miners officials assembled the general committee here yesterday morning and after deliberating almost continually from 10:30 a. m. until 4:10 o'clock this morning to comply with the mandate of the federal court.

RUNAWAY BOY SENDS THANKS TO OFFICER

Winston Hubert, 13, of Pittsburgh, was a ward of Probation Officer John Dwyer for a few hours when he was "down and out," has written Mr. Dwyer, expressing his thanks for his treatment while in Newark. Hubert was picked up as a runaway boy and while detained was quartered at the Y. M. C. A. There he impressed the Y men with his many qualities. His letter to Mr. Dwyer follows:

"I am going to thank you for your kind treatment while I was 'down and out' in September. How are the Y. M. C. A. men and the judge?"

"I am having a good time back home and in school. Every night I go to the Y. M. C. A. I am in a swimming class. We play football every night. When you come to Pittsburgh 'come and see me. Goodbye and good luck."

Why We Love Cream Soups

ALL my family—Father and the children, too—love my cream soups. Tomato, potato, pea—no matter what it is, it tastes good. And it satisfies them almost better than anything else, for less money.

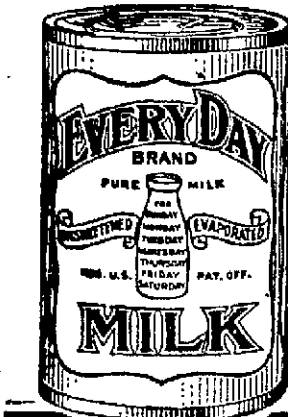

The Secret? I use Every Day Milk.

I found out that one bright tin of Every Day Milk had in it all the cream, all the butter-fat, all the nourishment, of over a quart of rich milk. You see, most of the water has been taken out, making it richer and creamier—nothing has been added. No wonder my soups are good.

And besides, I don't have to worry about ice man or milk man. I save money. I buy no more cream, for Every Day takes its place in coffee and on cereals.

Be independent of the ice man and the milk man. Every day use Every Day—the safe and pure milk.

Y. ENDORSES PLAN FOR THRIFT WEEK

Newark Association Will Participate In Movement To Help Young Men Think About Finance.

Plans for National Thrift Week beginning January 17, Benjamin Franklin's birthday anniversary has been endorsed by the industrial department of the Newark Y. M. C. A. This means that the local association will participate in the nationwide observance of this event. National Thrift Week is an activity of the Y. M. C. A. economic program which has for its purpose to help young men and boys to think straight about their money matters. It has been adopted as a definite part of the association's work along with the physical, educational, social and religious activities.

This new line of endeavor is based upon a financial creed which is known as the ten commandments of a person's financial life. The creed will be recommended to the people of the entire community during thrift week.

A special phase of thrift will be taught on each day of thrift week. In this way the entire week's program will give the people reached a liberal education on practical economy. The days of the week have been named as follows:

National Thrift Day or Bank Day, Saturday, January 17, to emphasize the service the bank renders a community.

Share with Others Day, Sunday, January 18, to emphasize the relation of money to character and the duty of sharing a part of one's income with others.

National Life Insurance Day, Monday, January 19, to emphasize the value of protecting loved ones with life insurance.

Own Your Own Home Day, Tuesday, January 20, to emphasize the desirability of owning one's home.

Make a Will Day, Wednesday, January 21, to emphasize the importance of making a will.

Thrift in Industry Day, Thursday, January 22, to emphasize the fact that the interests of employer and employee are identical.

Family Budget Day, Friday, January 23, to emphasize the advantage of keeping personal and family finances by the budget plan.

Pay Your Bills Promptly, Saturday, January 24, to emphasize the moral obligation to pay your bills promptly.

Eighteen years ago a movement was begun to connect idle children, idle churches, and idle college students during the vacation period of the city schools. This took place in New York; five churches were opened for a joint program of manual work, organized play, and Bible study. The experiment proved so successful, it has extended to 35 centers, 513 schools and cost $67,046.00 in 1918. Sixteen states reported schools last summer.

The International Association of Daily Vacation Bible schools has decided to hold a number of regional conferences this year instead of the usual annual gathering at New York.

One such conference is to take place in Columbus, Nov. 17 and 18, beginning at 2 p.m. the first day. The meeting place is the Y. M. C. A. building, across from the capitol. One of the speakers will be Dr. Robert C. Boville, the originator of the idea. This work is especially adapted to the more congested portions of the city; during the vacation months the children are without a constructive program and very often adopt a destructive one. The Columbus convention is open to visitors from Newark; attendance is the only credential necessary.

JONES LEASED BUILDING FOR $6000 RENTAL

The filing of a lease for property at 44 North High street, Columbus yesterday showed that O. C. Jones of Newark was to receive a total consideration of $100,000 for 15 years' rental. The lease was made to J. T. O'Shaughnessy for women's apparel store. The lease was made out in January, 1918, but has never been filed. In the meantime the O'Shaughnessy store has failed. By the terms of the lease O'Shaughnessy was to pay $5,000 cash, $5,000 annually the first 10 years and $7,000 a year the remaining five years.

MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR LIVE STOCK EXPO.

A small army of mechanics and laborers are at work preparing the mammoth structure for the 1919 International Live Stock Exposition. This essential preliminary task, in order that we may fitly celebrate the Twentieth Anniversary event, is being conducted on a more elaborate scale than ever before. The management being determined to insure the comfort of visitors, exhibitors and their charges. The spacious buildings and grounds are being artistically decorated.

Owing to the wonderful growth of the show and to proper house arrangements, several more buildings are in process of preparation. An effort is being put forth to make the International Grain and Hay Show, a new department of the International Live Stock Exposition, in the same high level attained by this last mentioned institution.

Since the inauguration of the exposition, it has been the policy of the management to spare no expense to insure perfection in every detail. Owing to increased cost of material and labor, these details might have been neglected this year, but the directors decided that it would be doubtful economy and the high standard of previous years will be maintained if not exceeded.

When the gates of the exposition are opened on November 29th, for the great live stock roundup of the season, the public will realize that regardless of obstacles and abnormal conditions nothing essential to the success of the exposition has been overlooked.

BERGER DENIED SEAT IN HOUSE; VOTE 309 TO 1

Washington, Nov. 11.—Victor L. Berger, Milwaukee Socialist, was denied his seat in the house yesterday by an overwhelming vote, the house holding he was ineligible for membership because of his open opposition to war.

The vote to unseat Berger was 309 to 1. Representative Voigt, Republican, Wisconsin, being the only member to support the Wisconsin Socialist either during the debate or on the roll call. After denying the seat to Berger, the house declared that the seat was vacant, holding that Joseph P. Carney, Democrat, who contested Berger's election, did not receive a plurality, in the election last year. Without a record vote, the house also directed Speaker Gillett to notify the Wisconsin governor of the vacancy in the state delegation so that a special election may be called to choose a new member.

Consideration of the right of Berger to a seat proceeded amidst somewhat of an uproar in the house chambers and with crowded galleries. A detail of capital police guarded the entrance of the men's gallery. Berger's wife and nephew were in the public gallery until shortly before the roll call, but Berger himself, after alternating during the debate between the chamber and the lobby, left just as the vote began.

"I take back nothing I said in my speeches and articles," he told the house, "and under the same circumstances I would say and write it all over again, only I would make it a great deal stronger."

Although he was never permitted to take his seat in the house Berger, since the beginning of the special session of congress, May 19, has drawn the full pay of a representative, enjoyed the franking privileges and occupied an office in the house office building.

The office has been declared vacant and a special election will be called to choose a successor.

OBSERVES ARMISTICE DAY. Toronto, O., Nov. 11.—Armistice day was fittingly observed here today with the unveiling of bronze statues and tablets in honor of Toronto's service men. A great street parade preceded the unveiling. Miss Frances McLean pulled the cord that unveiled the statues. This honor was bestowed because of the fact that her two brothers, Paul and Ray McLean, lost their lives in the great war.

KIDNAPPING RESULTS IN APOPLEXY ATTACK

Canton, Nov. 11.—T. F. Albee, 63, traveling salesman, died Monday afternoon of apoplexy after a week's illness. He was a native of Michigan and his burial will be at Jonesville, Michigan, Thursday. William Albee, of Detroit, is his only son.

An attempt was made a week ago to kidnap the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albee, by a couple held in jail here and known as Mr. and Mrs. Siebert. It is said by friends of Mr. Albee that excitement due to the kidnapping brought on the fatal attack.

TOLEDO MERCHANTS ARE HIT BY IDLE CAR SYSTEM

Toledo, Nov. 11.—Toledo today started its third street carless day with a complaint from its downtown merchants that their business had been materially reduced because of shoppers remaining at home rather than take chances with the uncertain substitute system of motor transportation. Inclement weather yesterday and this morning added to the adverse outcome of the vote of the people last Tuesday when they cast their ballots in favor of an ordinance ordering the cars off the streets.

The fight against the Toledo Railways and Light company is to be to the finish with a definite settlement of a 15 year traction battle in view was shown by the action of the city council last night in voting almost unanimously against repeal of the ordinance which brought about present conditions.

Under the terms of the city charter even if the council changes its tactics and votes under pressure of the merchants to repeal the ordinance, such repeal will have to be submitted to the voters at another election, it is pointed out. City laws experts claim that the charter contains a provision making it possible for the calling of such special election.

The street car company continued today to circulate petitions to submit a company-drafted franchise to the voters. The work was said to be progressing satisfactorily.

Meanwhile the cars remain in Michigan and the car riders are paying 10 and 20 cents to get to and from their work in motor busses.

With cotton at its present price, it is hard to realize that there was ever a "buy a bale" movement.—Springfield Republican.

OHIO BREAKS ALL CORN CROP RECORDS

Columbus, Nov. 11.—Ohio produced 159,544,000 bushels of corn this year, according to J. L. Cochran, in charge of the federal crop reporting service in Ohio. The yield is 26,000,000 bushels greater than last year's and 13,000,000 bushels above the 10-year average production for the state, he said. The average yield was 41 bushels to the acre, a record-breaker.

Cochran also reported the quality of corn as 92 per cent. He said potato production was 9,200,000 bushels, 2,000,000 less than 1918. Buckwheat yield was 609,000, above the average, while the total tobacco production was 80,440,000 pounds, nearly 25,000,000 pounds less than last year.

The Home Telephone company may take over the Central Union property or be taken over by it as will be decided later. The Central Union property in Sandusky is valued at $400,000. The Home company property is appraised at $160,000.

ARMISTICE DAY.

This day a year ago on November 11, 1918 when the bells rang out their joyous chorus seems a long way back, now. At that time it seemed as if all the world's problems were going to be settled right off. Man had gone through a purifying process and his evil ways had been cleaned in the furnace of affliction.

As time has gone on, those buoyant hopes have been abated. Man appears about the same old animal that he always was, with much more tendency to root and to put his feet in the trough than to fly.

However, it is very foolish to yield to depressing thoughts. Armistice Day should forever be one of glorification. Then American spirit was at its high water mark. The American people in the face of the world's doubts and the contempt of enemies, had just given a demonstration of what they could do.

American spirit broke a line of defenses that all the allied armies had considered impregnable, and which no one else had thought of attempting. In so doing they broke the back of the war. The spirit shown by the American soldiers are something marvellous. There was nothing like it in the war. There was a determination and fever, a daring of all obstacles, of all obstacles, that astonished the world and broke the German spirit.

As American spirit could do that in war, it can do the same thing in peace. The display of the same sacrifice, the same discipline, the same resolution, can resolve our little industrial and social problems like the smoke before the morning sun. All that is needed is leadership and determination, the spirit of service and of loyalty to the historic American ideals.

HERE'S TEST OF PURPOSE.

Rather sudden this burning desire of the Ohio Legislature to reduce expenses by combining offices. It will be recalled that during the long sessions of the Ohio Assembly a bill to present a complete budget system proposal for constitutional amendment was offered by Representative Reynolds of Cleveland, a Democrat. But this bill, like others, was buried.

When Governor Cox was first elected he sponsored a budget measure which has since been in operation and which has resulted in saving a great amount of money to the state. However, its scope was limited because of constitutional restrictions. In his message last January the governor urged that an air-tight budget system be made possible by amendment to the constitution. He pointed out that a great saving had been made under the present plan which showed how great good could come from giving the governor greater power over the budget and restricting the legislature appropriations.

If the legislative committee that is spending $30,000 out of the meager treasury of Ohio, is at all in earnest it will take up the budget question and urge its adoption at the December session.

AMERICA'S MERCHANT MARINE.

Almost every day witnesses the launching of one or more great ocean going vessels that are ready to carry the cargoes of American manufacture to every every part of the world. The Stars and Stripes now are to be seen in every port in the world and on every sea. We now have greater shipbuilding capacity and are building ships faster than all the world combined.

This tonnage, increasing constantly, will soon put America ahead of all nations in shipping. It means that American factories if ever the era of peace arrives, can produce to greater capacity in the history of the land, knowing that the world markets await American goods and that America has the ships to carry the products.

Even if the prospect for world peace means nothing even if all other benefits to America are cast aside and ignored, this alone should force the senate ratification of the treaty of peace. And it would, were it not for the fact that partisan leaders are fearful of giving a Democratic administration credit not only for its part in producing this wonderful document, but for building a great merchant marine of which America may well be proud.

These partisans are not going to permit anything to happen between now and 1920 that will in any way reflect to the credit of the Democratic party if they can help it.

TODAY NOT YESTERDAY.

Lincoln won the civil war. McKinley won the Spanish-American war. But when anyone says that Wilson won the war with Germany the Republicans commence to "throw fits."

For a party leadership that lives only in the past and is in dire need of something that at least resembles the present, it is to be regretted that the Republicans were not in power during the war.

The Republican party has been electing men from the high office of president down to the town constable on the strength of Lincoln's greatness. The same thing is true of McKinley, and now since Roosevelt it dead they are using his name for the same purpose. Of course it was but a few short years ago that Roosevelt, to these stand-pat leaders was a demagogue, and everything else undesirable. But later Roosevelt swung into line and they changed their attitude toward him. In Ohio this fall they tried to elect councilmen, mayors, etc., on what Lincoln did.

The American of today, regardless of politics is willing to take off his hat to the memory of our great public men in the past. But at the same time he wants to select his public officials of today on their own records and for their own ability, rather than because they happen to belong to the party of Lincoln of McKinley and Roosevelt.

RAILWAY OUTLOOK.

In his weekly financial letter Henry Clews, New York banker and authority, has this to say of the railway outlook:

In notifying congress that the railroads would have to be returned to their owners December 31, Director Hines has practically forced the railroad situation into a new phase. There have been rumors for some time past that government operation might be extended for a few months in order to afford time for congress to legislate. By informing congress that the roads will be returned Mr. Hines has made necessary prompt action regarding the status of the lines, and in so doing has practically deferred the discussion of the general railroad question until a later date. It would now seem that congress would have to lay aside the Cummins bill for the time being and enact some temporary legislation calculated to provoke for immediate action. Just how this will effect the prices of railroad shares remains to be seen, but its first influence has been favorable rather than otherwise. The railroads shares, as is well known, have not participated in the great advance of prices on the Exchange. Favorable legislation now may open the way to a moderate advance in values while unsatisfactory legislation will hurt them. Although of course not so seriously as it would had they had an anticipatory rise in prices. It will be some time, undoubtedly, before the railroad question as a whole is satisfactorily cleared up and meanwhile more or less uncertainty must exist.

Readers' Viewpoint

DEFENDS MINERS.

Editor Advocate: Permit me to make a brief statement concerning the cause of the coal miners and their strike for redress of their grievances. I have been more or less in contact with that class of laborers since I was ordained in 1875 and a better body of citizens does not exist. They are kind, patient, honest and charitable and yet they have been the most neglected and abandoned. There is not a word stated in this morning's papers about their wrongs that is not true. I know that the coal miners are the class that will not think charge them with inconsiderate and even treason for striking at such a season when we are on the eve of winter, but why do we not ask the question: Why is the cause of this? Did the miners not give timely warning? Did they not show an honest disposition to arbitrate their demands? Did not their employers repudiate the miners' proposals as if the latter were inferiors who were not worthy of consideration. Now, if our government is to prove to the world that it is truly democratic in the best sense of the term, it must rise superior to all parties and candidates and protect the laborer that they have no more rights than the rest of the people of our country but that all must submit to the supreme power of the state and arbitrate their demands on all questions where the public good is involved.

I regard the stand taken by the mine owners as I have regarded the stand taken by Judge Gary in the steel strike as "intolerant, autocratic and utterly unfair to the people." The United States whose servants the steel trust and all the rest of us as loyal citizens must be if we wish to live under the protection of the government thereof cannot permit such wicked protection against class government to the exclusion of any other class. We are too apt, as was demonstrated on a few occasions during the late war, to allow a certain class of powerful individuals or even of families to be in the hands of the reins of government and violate or trample upon the rights of others. There are anarchists who often act in the name of law and there are others who even act in the name of law against all and every one we should guard ourselves and our government has it in its power to restrain and compel all to be obedient to the supreme will of the people which they have invested in their representatives in Congress. Let us all be true and loyal citizens and not be led astray by any kind of demagogues whether they come out from capital or labor.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift.

It is said that at the outbreak of the European war when the public was called upon to save, there were many popular delusions in England concerning thrift. Among the well-to-do classes there had been fostered a belief that spending money was meritorious because it helps business and promote better economic conditions. Aside from the unwholesome example which such affairs set for the poorer class of people, the wanton destruction of material wealth of all kinds is not justified.

At the present time, many of the people of our nation are indulging in unprecedented practices of extravagance. In the larger cities of the country money is being spent most lavishly. There is waste and extravagance to be seen on every hand. While these practices may make for better business temporarily in some lines, they produce havoc in general. They cause fictitious values and lend encouragement to general practices of thriftlessness. They can not go on indefinitely. Sooner or later our people must turn to the substantial processes of constructive labor, judicious spending and wise saving.

The nation must be run on the principles of thrift. It is the only basis that is economically sound. It is the only condition that will withstand all adverse attacks. The one great need in America to-day is a thorough understanding of the fact that through thrift alone will conditions become stabilized. We are not in need of new ideas or new plans. What we need is a national baptism of old-fashioned thrift.

DON'T WHIP!

Stop Lashing Your Bowels with Harsh Cathartics but take "Cascarets."

Everyone must occasionally give to the bowels some regular help or else suffer from constipation, bilious attacks, stomach disorders, and sick headache. But do not whip the bowels into activity with harsh cathartics. What the liver and bowels need is a gentle and natural tonic, one that can constantly be used without harm. The gentlest liver and bowel tonic is "Cascarets." They put the liver to work and cleanse the colon and bowels of all waste, toxins and poisons without griping—they never sicken or inconvenience you like Calomel, Salts, Oil, or Purgatives.

Twenty-five million boxes of Cascarets are sold each year. They work while you sleep. Cascarets cost so little too.—Adv.

SAYS HUSBAND FEARS RESULT OF HER EATING

Mrs. Caseman Marvels At Increase of Appetite, Since Taking Trutona—Feels Like New Person.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Nov. 10.—"My husband says he'll have to call for help if I keep on eating the way I have for the past few days since taking Trutona," Mrs. Eliza Caseman, 38 years old, a well known Portsmouth woman of 519 Seventh street, said recently. Mrs. Caseman has lived in Portsmouth for nearly ten years and she is well known here.

"Mine was a complication of troubles," she continued. "Constipation bothered me. I frequently experienced dizzy spells and would often be sick at my stomach. For the past year I've suffered from a pain in my side which, at times, was so severe I just thought I couldn't stand it. I seldom ate very much and all last spring I had such bad pains in my back. I tried different means to get relief but my attempts were futile."

"I simply feel like a new person, since taking Trutona. Why, for years past I haven't eaten three meals a day, but now I eat three a day and haven't felt hungry between meals. I haven't experienced the pain in my side for some time now. In the past I could not lay on my side and didn't sleep well, but in the past few nights I've slept like a log. I've gotten rid of the constipation, too. One bottle of Trutona has done me more good than all the other medicines I've ever taken put together. It's the best medicine I've ever taken and I can recommend it to anyone suffering as I did."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Newark at Erman's Arcade Drug Store.

NERVOUSNESS OF 15 YEARS IS OVERCOME

This Iowa Woman Gladly Recommends Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a Tonic

"For fifteen years," relates Miss Anna Anderson, of No. 508 South First street, Keokuk, Iowa, "I had suffered from extreme nervousness and indigestion. Sometimes I was worse than others but I never felt strong and nothing seemed to do me any good. There were times when I was so unstrung that I couldn't take care of my hands. Attacks of this nature would last for an hour at a time. I was weak and tired and couldn't sleep well. My stomach was upset and digestion was incomplete and often caused distress and dizziness.

"One day I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try the remedy. I felt somewhat improved in a few days and continued the treatment. I haven't had a nervous spell since. I took the pills and feel much stronger in every way. My digestion is good, I sleep well and no longer have dizzy spells. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many of my friends."

Your own druggist can supply you with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., enclosing fifty cents for one box or $2.50 for six boxes. Write today for the free booklet "Diseases of the Nervous System."

Beauty Answers

By MADAME MAREE

STRENGTHENING and enlarging the roots of the hair is one of the most important secrets of forcing hair to grow, something which has heretofore not been fully realized. Merely stimulating the scalp will not stimulate the hair to grow. A permanent hair growth is desired. By the new method mentioned hair can be forced to grow in several months. The hair stops falling out by magic. The new vigor of the hair will be quickly noticed, and all bald spots will be soon entirely filled with new hair sprouts. This can all be easily obtained by the simple use of beta-quinol, which can be secured at any drug store in the original one-ounce package for 50 cents. This can be easily mixed at home with a half pint of bay rum and a half pint of water. It contains no oil whatever.

MISS YEAH—On the contrary, removing wrinkles is easy, very easy, astonishingly easy. And it takes but two or three minutes a day and a few cents expense. The new method is so sure and positively will be proven to you absolutely in your mirror in a few days. I dare say, nothing has ever been known to produce such results as by the formula which I give you here. From your druggist get two ounces of opal, which will cost 50 cents, and mix with one tablespoonful of glycerine in half a pint of water. Mix thoroughly. The cream that results should be used very liberally and every day. Quickly you will notice the little wrinkles, deep wrinkles, crows' feet and heavy lines giving way before an ever increasing plumpness of the skin, and years seem literally to be taken from the face.

LT. DON LADD IS IN SIBERIA

Writes Denison Professor That He Was Assigned With 50 Men to Guard Bridge—Has Brush With Reds.

(Special to the Advocate) Granville, Nov. 11.—Lieutenant Don Ladd, D. U. 16, is in Siberia with the American expeditionary force, and according to a letter written to Professor Dr. Williams and published in the Denisonian, his job is no sinecure. His description of his first brush with the Reds, and his sensations under fire, are graphic and interesting. He and his fifty men were detailed to guard a bridge, and were having a strenuous time, as there was no one to relieve them. "Our forces in Siberia are terribly small," he wrote, "and we are scattered from Vladivostok to Lake Baikal, fifteen hundred miles. As to what the outcome here will be it is hard to tell."

The tolling of the old bell in the town hall steeple roused Granville people this morning at 5 o'clock to the realization of the first anniversary of Armistice Day. As this is the alarm bell for the village it was used most discreetly and the real joyous clamor of the church bells at 7 o'clock proclaimed the joyful tidings far and near. The day dawned bright and fair and preparations for the celebration were complete.

The growing popularity of the community rooms as a meeting place of the clubs was evidenced in the large attendance at the meeting of the "Travelers' club" Monday afternoon, when a program of great interest was presented. "The Greek Question" was given a sympathetic treatment by Mrs. Anna Campbell, who thoroughly analyzed the entire situation which led up to the abdication of Constantine and the elevation of his premier, Venizelos to the position of "savior of Greece."

"The Medical Corps" by Mrs. Mary N. Jones was a heartily tribute to one of the most important and one of the least recognized departments of army service. Thousands of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in the country enlisted for army service and while allowed to carry no arms, were in the most exposed positions. Nor were the physicians and surgeons left at home, behind them in devotion to the needs of suffering humanity. "A Traveler's Tale" by Mrs. W. C. Ebaugh gave a delightful description from Salt Lake City, to Granville, O., in the fall of 1918, by Dr. and Mrs. Ebaugh with their three children—a tour through ten states and over all sorts of roads, without a single accident to their Overland touring car, save the occasional snapping of a spring bolt. The glimpse into Yellowstone Park was not the least interesting of the many experiences. Next week Professor F. G. DeWeaver will address the club on "Socialism."

The fourth of July committee on parade all went to Zanesville, Ohio, to witness the Mardi Gras in that city.

H. W. Peters and James K. Morrow have established an up-to-date undertaking establishment at Granville in the late Dr. Pollett residence on Broad way, and have installed motor hearse and ambulance equipment. Mr. Morrow is a licensed embalmer, being a graduate of the Columbus Embalming school, and has had several years' experience. The fact that they have a motor ambulance at their disposal should be appreciated by the residents of Granville and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jones left Monday night for the east where they will spend a week in New York and in visiting their daughter, Miss Frances Jones, who is a student in Bryn Mawr college. The Women's Music club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the Community rooms.

The postponed piano recital of Miss Frances Henry of the Conservatory faculty will meet in Recital hall Wednesday evening.

Prof. F. G. Boughton will lead the mid-week meeting in the Baptist church Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Those present were Mrs. Henry Sayer, Mrs. Earl Sayer, Mrs. Fred Sayer and two children of Buckeye Lake, Miss Florence Evans of Columbus, and Miss Helen Nichol of Butte, Mont., Mrs. G. W. Rugg and Mrs. Alice Lederer.

Announcement of the approaching wedding of Miss Helen Nichol of Butte, Mont., to Mr. Henry Fink of Thorpe was made. Miss Nichol is the grand daughter of Henry Sayer of Buckeye Lake. The Sayers leave Wednesday for Kissimmee Park, Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Frank Horn delightfully entertained the members of the Keep Komin club on Friday afternoon at her home on St. James street. The hours were spent in needlework. At the close The Frances Willard W. C. T. U. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Neal Avenue M. E. church.

Isabel Miller W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Richard Markham, 333 Tuscarawas street, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A report of the state convention will be given.

The Dorcas Ladies of the Maple Avenue C. U. church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Jesse Warthen, 423 Park avenue. At this meeting the election of officers will be held, and other business of importance transacted.

Miss Mary Noble, an elocutionist impersonator, gave two recitals which were greatly enjoyed. On Saturday afternoon she appeared at the Second Presbyterian church to a large audience. On Monday evening she appeared at the same church. Those who heard Miss Noble last night were even more delighted with her monologue than on her previous recitals. Mrs. Norton Suter gave several piano numbers. Martha Flurschutz violin and Mrs. T. J. Evans and Miss Mary Carl sang.

Mrs. Raymond Haynes will entertain the members of the Ladies' Aid society in West Main street on Tuesday evening of next week.

KIWANIANS HEAR TEACHER'S TALK

W. E. Painter Tells of Growth of Manual Training in Newark Public Schools—Give Up Chautauqua.

W. E. Painter, the father of manual training in Newark, on Monday gave Kiwanians a short account of the development of the work in this city. He stated that the department was created in 1902 when he was a school principal in East Newark. Ratia work, etc., was the first attempted manual work. It became so popular that the next year an abandoned carpenter bench in the basement of the East Main street school was used for carpentering instruction. Girls and boys alike took to the new work. However, it was found best to substitute leather work for the girls, and later on the domestic science department was created to care for girls. Painter gathered statistics to prove that the manual training students excelled in scholarship those who did not take the course. He usually took course in manual training so as to better handle the fast growing department. In the early days of this department, Messrs. Fleek and Ilesley provided some equipment but the school board, being not budgeted by the school board, was only a partial account of the growth of this department of which he will detail at a later period.

Once more the Kiwanian Indians had 93 per cent of them present out at the noonday meeting of the club. Harry Scott introduced a brother who is visiting in Newark, W. W. Gard entertained Wilbur T. Mills, a Columbus architect, and a ladies' aid society. The former secretary of the club, visited his one time club brothers, Benj. Way, photographer, Third and Church streets was acclaimed as the latest Kiwanian. The silent hotel was in the hands of the City Auditor, Nelson Dodd. It consisted of Kiwanian emblems for the auto windshields and business windows of the club members. In addition, the secretary was presented with a card and note case. Vice President Vrech presided. He announced that the board of directors had passed up the proposition of backing the Chautauqua for next summer. A selling agency could be changed to handle the tickets. The club changed the evening meeting from the third Monday to the last in order to accommodate five members who must attend council meetings on the third Monday. A ladies' aid society planned for the last meeting this month. The feature of the evening is in the hands of Dr. Prior.

Milady's Boudoir

Training the Nose. Even if you have a mature age you can, with persistent and patient effort, train your nose to grow in any way you think it should go. To begin the process of nose moulding, first clean the skin with a cleansing cream. Then place the thumb of the left hand on the left side of the nose, the fingers down to the bridge, bring the fingers down to the tip, and firmly pressing the tip down, if you wish to correct a pug nose. Be very careful not to spread the nose, but combine a pressing and pulling motion, pinching the nostrils together.

Next to the eyes the nose is the most prominent feature of the face and many women just escape being beautiful because of an ill shaped nose. It is impossible to change the shape of the bone structure of the nose, but it is possible to remould the covering of flesh and in this manner change the shape of the nose.

The perfect nose is the Grecian. Clear in profile, with a fine clear skin, it is smooth and has delicate nostrils. There is consolation in the fact, however, that imperfections sometimes hold a certain charm, and a nose, in many instances, which is not perfect, adds to the attractiveness of a face. The wise mothers will begin in babyhood to mould the noses of their little ones into beautiful shape, while the carilage is still pliable.

A nose that lacks the line of beauty is the thick, spreading nose, sometimes flattened out at the tip. If you have this kind of a nose, and infinite pain is caused by the shape, it can be improved by simply massaging the flesh and pressing it into the right contour. Pinch the nostrils together and continue the moulding at intervals during the day, whenever you think of it. You will be surprised to find in a short time there will be a noticeable improvement in the shape of the nose and in your whole facial appearance.

Our Boys and Girls

Many complaints are heard about lazy children and many more are advanced for their lack of activity. But specialists who have devoted years to the study of the problem, agree that it is impossible for a thoroughly healthy child to be lazy.

There is the irresistible impulse of youth to be up and doing, that makes the healthy child so much of an annoyance to people who wish everything quiet and orderly. The first thing to be done when a child shows symptoms of laziness, is to have him examined by a competent physician. In nine cases out of ten it will be found that the cause of impaired activity is impaired health, it is not actual disease.

When a child sits or lies about, not caring to play or go anywhere, not even having the temptation to get into mischief, there is surely something wrong and steps should be at once taken to find out the trouble.

ARMISTICE DAY IS CELEBRATED BY ROTES

Armistice Day was celebrated with songs and speeches at the noon meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday. A large number of Rotes together with several guests made merry at the expense of the former Kaiser and his cohorts who admitted defeat just one year ago.

The evening of last week's political predictions brought forth the fact that four Rotarians were successful in naming eight out of nine winning candidates. Those who tied for first place in the contest were Karl Rehnbach, Harry Swisher, E. C. Wright and Ralph Davis.

George Burba, editor of the Columbus Dispatch, who was to have been the speaker of the day was unable to be present. Mr. Burba will address the Rotes at some later date.

C. Harrington Davis was admitted into membership in the club and was the recipient of a Rotary pin button. On next Tuesday noon the club will entertain John R. Bentley of Cleveland who is the governor of the Rotary clubs of the Ohio district.

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

PAYING CASE TO GO TO SUPREME COURT

In the case of Geo. H. Fromholtz, et al. versus the City of Newark, and the Federal Asphalt Paving company, a suit involving the East Main street paving, the defendants will file a petition in error and bill exceptions in the supreme court of Ohio.

FILES PETITION FOR DIVORCE.
Wesley Wickliff has filed a petition in common pleas court against Blaisey R. Wickliff. They were married at Putaskala, O., on April 20, 1915. Plaintiff alleges that for the past three years and more defendant has refused to perform her household duties and through his attorney, Link C. Russell, asks that he be granted a divorce.

THE MARKETS

Wall Street.
New York, Nov. 11.—Speculative stocks rose 2 to 8 points at the active opening of today's session as a result of the calling off of the coal strike. Foremost in the advance were steel, motors and oils, but many seasonal issues, such as rails and shippings also responded to the favorable news. Extensive covering by the short interest materially accelerated the initial movement, but prices soon found temporary resistance and the first half hour on realizing for profits.
Brokers with out of town connections reported heavy selling at the opening, much of which was attributed to interests unaware of the action of the coal miners. This counter movement probably contributed in large part to the sudden reversal of the first hour. Prices then advanced slightly, but were entirely cancelled. Another adverse factor was the demoralized market for foreign exchanges. Remittances to London, Paris and Italy fell to lowest quotations since early in the year. The stock market received another sharp setback towards noon when call loans opened at 14 percent; this figure establishing a new high initial rate.

Ascertaining Mountain Heights.
The height of mountains is ascertained by barometric observation, showing the pressure of atmosphere at the lower and higher levels. An instrument called the mountain barometer is graded especially for this purpose. It can also be done with a leveling instrument and theodolite, but either way requires technical knowledge.

"FLU" GERMS Multiply by the Millions, Powerful Resistance Needed

To guard against pneumonia and influenza every precaution is necessary. The slightest cold neglected for even one day often results fatally. Carelessness in allowing a simple cold to drift down into your chest and lungs gives you less than a fighting chance for the doctor to pull you through. The danger season is here. Damp fogs, frosts, snow, slushy rains assist the pneumonia and influenza germ in its work. You overtake a steaming-hot cupful of Bulgarian Blood Tea with a little lemon juice, get to bed and out of danger. If your druggist is out of it you should have it at once—quick shipment by insured mail. Send 50 cents for a two months' supply, or $1.25 for a large family five months' supply. Address Marvel Products Co., sole manufacturers of Bulgarian Blood Tea, Marvel Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Adv.

FLU CAUSES SIX DEATHS IN CHICAGO

The weekly bulletin of the health department issued yesterday, shows that six persons died in Chicago last week as result of influenza. Dr. W. A. Evans, health authority and writer of Chicago, last week, predicted that the world would again be swept by an epidemic of influenza far more severe than last year, when thousands of lives were lost. One thing is sure, that is, the warm weather this fall has kept the epidemic down, but as colder weather approaches, influenza is liable to break out any time. Dr. Brady says: "No one has as yet discovered a positive method of diagnosing early cases of influenza from alleged 'colds.' The utmost care should be taken, therefore not to catch cold, for colds weaken the resistance to influenza germs."

Doctors seem to agree that it is much easier to prevent influenza than to cure it. The secret of preventing influenza is to keep the germs from lodging and developing in the respiratory organs—the mouth, nose and throat. No one should be allowed to breathe in your face because the germs are often transmitted in this manner.

Influenza can be prevented, last year's results prove that. As a preventive for Flu, Turpo has been an effective germicide, combining the old-fashioned remedies of turpentine (which has always been known as the best home germicide) camphor and menthol in a pure mineral base. These ingredients have long been recognized as effective germicides, as well as having really wonderful qualities in relieving colds and congestions. Snuff a little Turpo up the nostrils several times a day, and the Flu germs will have little chance of getting a lodging and breeding place. Many physicians and hospitals use and recommend Turpo.

Prepare now. Buy thirty cent jar of Turpo, while your druggist has a supply on hand, and use as directed. Last year druggists had no Turpo in the demand. Remember that Turpo is a preventive, not a cure for influenza. Take care of yourself.

Jacksonville, O., Nov. 10.—The following message from Mrs. John George is published for the guidance and relief of all whose stomachs are making life miserable.

"For years I was troubled with gas on my stomach and bloating. Everything I ate soured on my stomach and caused misery and pains. After eating I would take cramps and suffer great pain. I have taken a lot of medicines and it did me no good. I tried Dr. Parker's treatment for indigestion and constipation and was relieved at once. I think it a grand medicine for the stomach."

Cough Syrup that Protects the Family Reliably.

"Have used Duffee's Cough Syrup the last 28 years in a family of four children. The youngest tot fairly screamed for the syrup. It is pleasant to take and we highly recommend it for the youngest to the oldest of the family."—Mrs. Jessie Blackmore, Washington, C. H., Ohio.

Hundreds of others have found equal merit in Duffee's Cough Syrup and told about it. At the first indication of a cold, take this syrup. Often it will check it quickly. But if the cold is deep-seated, a dose may be taken every hour for twenty-four hours, and if you will take Duffee's Fifty-Fifty Tonic Laxative Tablets with the Cough Syrup, your cold will almost invariably disappear. Promptness is the essential part. Duffee's Cough Syrup in the house. Purely vegetable and contains no narcotic. At your druggist's and grocer's.—Adv.

AGAINST WAGES FOR WIVES

Gathering of Women Ridicule the Idea, Labeling It as "Commercializing the Home."

Wages for wives were turned down by an audience largely of women here the other night after a debate on whether husbands should be required to pay such wages, says the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

One speaker drew a dismal picture of the future of romance with wives working for wages.

"Imagine a scene like this," he said: "Honey, do you love me?" "Of course I love you." "Then will you marry me?" "Well, maybe. How much do you pay?"

"Suppose the wives were to join the soviet of waiters-up and charge triple wages for waiting up nights for husbands," he said.

"Imagine a wife going into society and being labeled a $15-a-week wife. A woman can take a last-year hat and make it look like new. But when she signed a contract for $15 a week there would be no hiding it from the neighbors."

Another speaker pleaded that "woman shall not be brought down from her pedestal as a queen and made a mere employee of man." In depicting the future of romance under the wage system he said the marriage ceremony would have to be revised to read:

"With this ring I hire thee, and will pay thee $15 a week by the aid of the world, the flesh and the devil."

Notices like the following he predicted would be published:

"Married—John Brown and Mary Smith, by Rev. Russell H. Conwell. They will live in Logan and the wife's wages will be $15 a week."

Scenes like the following in court were forecast:

"Judge, he hired me for $20 a week and he is now two weeks overdue in my pay. I'm going to get a new boss."

LOOKING AHEAD A FEW YEARS

Remarks That Will Be Merely Ordinary When the Blimp Has Been Finally Perfected.

Augustus Tolliver, the soap king, strode wrathfully out of his stateroom aboard the blimp and seized the arm of the porter.

"Idiot!" he roared, "why didn't you give me a call this morning? I told you I had to be in London for a directors' meeting at 9 a. m. sharp, and now London is Lord knows how many thousands of miles in our rear."

"Ah pounded on yo' door, boss, but yo' refuses to waken," replied the porter.

The soap king pulled out a watch. "Eleven-thirty," he grunted disgustedly. "Where are we now?"

"Just passed over St. Louis, boss; we'll be back in N'Yawk at 12:05."

"Oh! well," said Tolliver, "I can attend that 12:30 meeting of the soap powder people and catch the 1:30 blimp for London."

Rat Skins for Leather.
The suggestion has been made that the rat problem might be best solved by making use of the skins of the rodents for the purpose of leather.

Somewhere with the gift of guessing computes that there are 10,000,000 in this country, and the damage they do would take at least 5,000 skins a day to supply a small modern tannery.

Nobody wants the rats, they belong to anybody that can catch them. That is the problem—to catch them, and then deliver the goods. There is not enough leather to go around.

Fish skins are susceptible of tanning, and there are rat skins which make good leather, large enough for many purposes.

Cure for Poison Ivy.

Mrs. Evelyn S. Trenbath, wife of the Rev. Robert W. Trenbath, rector of St. James's Episcopal church of Montclair, N. J., has conferred a boon on sufferers from poison ivy by announcing a remedy which those who have tried it say is a most efficacious remedy. It is simply the green leaves of common catnip rubbed on the affected parts until the juice runs.

This never fails, Mrs. Trenbath says, no matter how advanced the case may be, and is simple to use, especially in the case of children. The plant grows usually in great abundance behind old barns, and is said to be so antagonistic to the ivy that if planted near it the ivy disappears.

Volcano That Emits Lava.

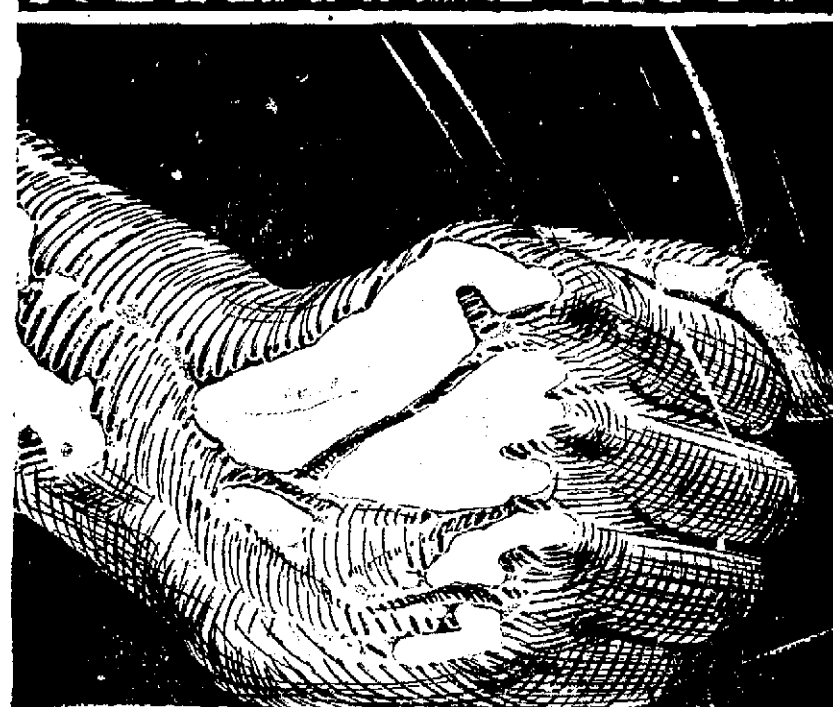

The following is reported by an observer in Hawaii: Tremendous changes are in progress at Kilauaea, and there is no indication whatsoever of any cessation of the monumental rising of the entire vast lava column. Over the southwest brink a wide stream of glistening lava is sluggishly flowing in the direction of the Kahu desert, not with the spectacular cascading torrents of the southeastern flows of last March, but with a steady, stealthy gliding, which gains ground slowly at its base, but which piles up into tremendous masses from its source forward.

Dry Lead for Batteries.

A dry battery utilizing red lead, instead of the usual manganese compound, has been patented by H. Czanyi. It is claimed that the red lead battery lasts longer than the type now in vogue, may be kept inactive for months without any deterioration and may be recharged at least ten times, with each recharge as efficient as any present battery.

I ordered six boxes of your treatment, and today I am a well woman, can do my work and enjoy myself. Words cannot express my gratitude. Use my letter wherever you wish, as I am convinced there is nothing in the world like the Ointment Remedy." MRS. CHARLES LEWIS, 816 Sheridan Street.

"She Walked in Her Sleep," Tonight. At the Auditorium tonight A. S. Stern and company in association with George Broadhurst will present the lively and successful farce, "She Walked in Her Sleep," which comes from the atelier of Mark Swan, who is fast making for himself a lasting name in this country as a writer of farce. It will be recalled that "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," another chirpy farce is also from his well-trained pen. "Keep It to Yourself," another one of the big New York successes at this moment, is also of his making.

"She Walked in Her Sleep" has already enjoyed a six months' season of success in New York. It has been described as being very amusing, full of lively situations, negligible in name and treatment and with just enough piquancy in its mixture to be unobtrusively funny.

The farcical situations in "She Walked in Her Sleep" center in the somewhat burlesque proceedings of a young woman who, having been through a New York hotel, clad in a pretty silk nightgown and a pair of pink tootsies, find themselves between the tannish nightgown and the floor, she walks the outer edge of the hotel, enters rooms occupied by other folks and meets with the paper, was printed, was published and circulated in the home next door to the one in which the Belge family lived. It was with the help of Mlle. Belge's sister that the paper was distributed. Passed over the roof from the one house to the other it was stored in the Belge home in a room that had been occupied by a German officer but whose occupant had returned to Germany. This room had been locked and was to be held according to German orders inviolate until the officer's return. But it was in this very room that the editions of the Libre Belge were secreted until the propitious time for their circulation. For four years the Libre Belge was printed and circulated in the city of Antwerp and despite all the efforts of the German secret service, its editors could never be found. It did much to encourage the Belgians to hold out and stick together and was the one staff on which the Belgian spirit could rely.

"The Smarter Set." A musical comedy bearing the title of "The Children of the Sun" and adapted from the historical book of the same title by Geo. Wells Parker will be the offering of "The Smarter Set," better known as "The Smart Set," some ancient rites that the tribe is contemplating holding. She refuses to accept the offer, saying that she is not fit to bring food to the Holy Spirit. She tells her father that no girl that has loved the way she has is worthy of such an honor. Her father is amazed. For the first time he realizes that his daughter is not the kind of a girl she ought to be. This feature together with "The Song of Songs" is seen at this house today and at the Auditorium Wednesday.

Double Bill. Owing to road shows at the Auditorium Manager Fenberg is compelled to pay for pictures and lay them upon the shelf. The same happens today, but he believes in giving the public the benefit when that happens and today the Alhambra has a double program. Tomorrow the Auditorium will have a big double program. The Outing Chester, that wonderful one reel feature, instead of showing the Auditorium will be seen at the Alhambra on Wednesday together with the feature, also the Ford weekly.

Snares in Paris. Every effort to make a picture as true as possible to Paris high life and Paris low life, French diplomatic circles and the "quarter Latin" of the capital, is said to have been put into the making of "Snares of Paris," a new William Fox release which Manager Fenberg will display at his Alhambra Wednesday and Thursday.

This feature is also shown at the Auditorium tomorrow together with Norma Talmadge in "The Heart of Weyona," being a big special program at the Auditorium tomorrow.

The Song of Songs. A modern sociological drama is the vehicle in which Elsie Ferguson is starred in the Artcraft picture shown at the Alhambra today for the last time entitled "The Song of Songs." The scenario was written by Charles Maigne and adapted from the stage play by Edward Sheldon. Miss Ferguson has a role very similar to the one she played in "The Outcast," which was the crowning achievement of her stage career, and in which she was repeatedly praised by dramatic critics throughout the country as the leading emotional actress of the American stage.

In "The Song of Songs" she interprets the part of Lily Fardes, a girl of unusual beauty, who begins life a salesgirl for an Oriental store with branches on the boardwalks of Palm Beach and Atlantic City, where she attracts the attentions of wealthy men. Her career is a series of dramatic incidents, and she rises to a commanding position as the wife of ex-senator Calkins, a millionaire who proposes marriage only after he has been repeatedly repulsed in his wily advances. Through the plotting of Calkins' housekeeper, a former victim of his perfidy, Lily is caught in a seeming compromising position, and in a fit of jealous rage he drives her away.

Home. The marriage of Miss Mildred Harris, a Universal star, and Charlie Chaplin, who is regarded by many as the greatest comedian now before the camera, served to increase the popularity of that play. Mrs. Chaplin will be seen at the Alhambra theater next Monday in her latest picture, "Home," a Universal Jewel release, written and directed by Lois Weber.

LYRIC. Walter Ross' Camp Fire Girls Musical comedy company opened a week's engagement at the Lyric yesterday afternoon and the show proved to be a splendid one. The feature of the bill is that celebrated accordionist, Manner, his work is really wonderful. Walter Ross and Harry Hunter furnish the fun for the audience. Miss Ella Brown is a pleasing singer of tropical songs and Miss Charlotte Howard a ballad singer is equal to the best. Miss Marcia Compton the dapper is an artist in her line. Dick Manning sings some very pleasing songs. Betty Verne and Jane McCoy a Newark girl do their bill in a very pleasing manner. The bill this evening is "Too Many Wives." Tomorrow "The Count and the Hawk."

THE GRAND. Today commences at the Grand theater one of the best feature pictures now being shown, entitled "Love or Honor," a seven reel classic from the proceeds to cause enough complications to boom Reno. She is a clinging little thing, is this pretty somnambulist, who exhibits a carafée tendency to throw her arms around the necks of all the married men she meets. It happens that these married men have wives who are inclined to an easy suspicion. And, of course, the wives walk in just when the clinging somnambulist is in swift action. Added to these complications is a maid and an inventor of high explosives, the somnambulist's hat, a tube of melinite, all of which produces trouble in large quantities. Of course everything ends happily, but it is not until the final curtain discloses to all who are mixed up in this affair, the somnambulist in her pink tootsies, parading the outer ledge of the hotel. Daring Hearts. Manager Fenberg brings to his Auditorium, for a three-day screening, these two stars, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, who together with L. Rogers Lytton, Karl Dine, Jeanne Paige, Arthur Donaldson, George Des Lyon and others are seen in the stirring picture of love and thrills, "Daring Hearts," written by Albert E. Smith and Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady and is a Vitagraph special feature.

Mr. Bushman and Miss Bayne have just returned to the screen, that is to make this picture, for these two stars are now on the speaking stage, and it might be possible that they may be seen in Newark, for Mr. Fenberg is in communication with New York managers trying to arrange for their company to appear here.

In "Daring Hearts" they both have parts suited to their ability and their return to the screen should be the means of attracting their many friends to the Auditorium during the three-day showing.

To those who saw the aviators in action in Newark a few days ago, we say, nothing that they did to Mer Fenberg in the way of Aerial Death Dives will compare to those shown in this great Bushman-Bayne picture, "Daring Hearts." Mr. Fenberg announces, although this is a special, the prices during the Auditorium engagement will not be advanced.

"Fiddlers Three."

Tavie Belge, the Belgian prima donna who is playing the leading role in "Fiddlers Three," at the Auditorium theater Tuesday, Nov. 18, is the proud owner of a decoration from the King and Queen of Belgium and a personal letter from their majesties thanking her for her co-operation and work in behalf of the Belgian Relief association.

When the war broke out Mlle Belge was the prima donna of the Antwerp Royal Opera House. Persuaded to go to England when the Germans made their way into the city, a tour was arranged for her by the Belgian Relief association which brought her to Canada, where she gave a series of concerts, one hundred and ten in all, from coast to coast. It was while in Canada that she was induced to come to America and take her place in the first ranks of prima donnas in this country. Since the war has been over Mlle. Belge has paid a visit to her mother in Antwerp. While there she made arrangements to return the following summer and give a special season of three weeks with a series of the operas in which she starred in the days before the war.

Reunited with her family for the first time in four years Mlle. Belge heard much news which was considered wiser not to have made public before. The Belgian newspaper, "Libre Belge" which the Germans could not suppress because they could not find the source, its printing press, its staff or in fact anything or anyone con-

F. X. BUSHMAN, AUDITORIUM THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Select Picture, "The Heart of Weyona," in which she is presented in the role of a half Indian girl, by Joseph M. Schenck. The story is by George Scarborough. It was directed by Sidney A. Franklin.

Weyona, the daughter of Quannah, chief of a tribe of the Comanches, is chosen to act as vestal virgin at a Corn Dance to be given in connection with Ivan studios, in which Leah Baird and James Morrison are the stars. The picture is filled with emotional situations and acting and has pleased the large crowds who have seen it in other cities.

On Thursday and Friday will be shown "Let Katy Do It," a picture made under the personal direction of D. W. Griffith. The picture has never been shown here although it is four years old.

Grown-Ups at Play? Yes, Kiddies, Too, Urged in "Better World" Movement

ROWLAND HAYNES

Play for everybody—kiddies and grown-ups alike—is a feature of the plan of the National Social Unit Organization for organizing neighborhoods, to make a better democracy. The Social Unit has the idea that every city block should be a play center, and in its "demonstration community," which is situated in Cincinnati, there are block parties, block picnics, block sings, block dances, and even block journeys to the community health clinic.

That the public schools should be open all the year round and used by everybody is another cause for which thousand people have attended the Wednesday evening community sings instituted in the neighborhood.

Plans for extending the Social Unit idea to other municipalities are now being discussed by twelve committees of distinguished experts representing many fields of social endeavor, who will present recommendations to the country at a national conference to be held late in October. Rowland Haynes, Director of New York War Camp Community Service, heads a national committee of recreation experts who are helping to program wider activities from this angle.

APPLIED THE WRONG COLOR

Unfortunate Miscalculation of Indianapolis Young Lady Who Was Trying to Look Her Best.

One particularly hot day a pretty North side girl whose crowning glory is quite Titianly inclined, met a friend—a young man whom she had not seen recently—in Monument circle. At his suggestion they decided to take in the picture show and, incidentally, have a little visit.

Always solicitous about her appearance, this afternoon she was exceptionally so and fearful that her nose might, perhaps, be shiny. Wherefore on emerging from the theater, she lagged a little behind her escort, and, hastily opening her dormer box, gave her nose a surreptitious dab.

Fortified with the thought that even if it was a hot day she was looking pretty fair, she couldn't account for the very peculiar expression that she saw on his face as he turned to speak to her in the lobby. After a minute of strained silence, he said: "What have you been doing to your face, Elise? Trying to match your nose to your hair? It's a poor job if you did. Let's beat it back and you take a look in a mirror."

"Which same we did," she said, when she told the story on herself. Said she: "I knew he'd tell it, so I thought I might as well tell it first. Of course you know I hadn't powdered my nose. I'd rouged it—and abundantly, too. And it didn't come off as easily as it went on, either."—Indianapolis News.

PESTILENCE CAUSED BY WAR

Generally Understood That the Influenza Epidemic Was a Direct Result of Great Conflict.

Sufficient time has not yet elapsed to determine the indirect effects of the recent eruption of Mount Kilauea in Java, which wiped out over a score of villages and killed thousands of the natives, but recollections of Krakatoa's volcanic outbreak in 1883 which within six weeks sprinkled its fine lava dust over the whole world, has given an interesting suggestion to certain members of the medical profession. During the closing year of the war an influenza epidemic raged in many parts of the world. The manner of its outbreak in different countries indicated that the germs of the disease had been conveyed by the currents in the air. The theory, therefore, has been broached that the poison gases with which many sectors of the fighting area were drenched were carried by the wind, in every direction, causing the influenza outbreak in Spain, Germany, England, France, South America, Australia, Africa, Asia, as well as in the United States and some of the Central American countries. That the influenza is a corollary of the war is undoubted. Any similar gigantic conflict, is argued, would be attended with a similar widespread pestilence—an other reason why every effort should be made to avert wars in the future.—Leslie's.

Origin of "White Elephant"

The king of Siam in years gone by would send a white elephant to a courtier whom he disliked and whose fortune he wished to destroy. The man could not sell the elephant and the expense of keeping it eventually "broke him up." From that custom was handed down our present day saying, "He's got a white elephant on his hands."

Question of Dress.

Few of the picturesque tribal costumes that depart in main essentials from the dress found convenient by western civilization have succeeded in maintaining their traditional characteristics. The Roumanian people are among those whom the war has caused to forsake a distinctive national male attire. This, in its main lines, recalled the costume of the Roman legionaries, which was adopted by the nation when Roumania formed the Roman Province of Dacia. It consisted of a short white tunic, "baggy trousers" of white wool, and a curiously embroidered coat. Many of these garments were carried away as loot by invaders during the war, and the relief garments sent in from France, which are of more conventional design, are expected to drive the national costume into disuse. Heavy demands, however, will doubtless be made upon it in the field of masquerade and musical comedy.

Skillful Job of Moving.

A gas container 70 feet in diameter and 75 feet high, weighing 200 tons, was moved three miles recently at Portland, Ore. First it was raised 15 feet and loaded on rollers. Then it was moved four blocks through the city streets and lowered 28 feet to a dock, whence it was moved upon a pair of barges. The barges were towed three miles to a shipbuilding plant, where the tank was unloaded and raised 26 feet, moved across newly filled ground for a distance of 2,000 feet, crossing a railroad track, and placed on its new foundation. It took 71 days to complete the work.

Refuses to Leave Prison.

A man sentenced to Sing Sing prison in May, 1917, has already overstayed his sentence more than seven months, and refuses to go home. He is working with a construction gang building the new prison, and the wardens say he does as much work as any four men. The pay allowed prisoners by the state amounts to 1 1/2 cents a day. This man was greatly relieved when he was told that the prison authorities would not shut off his pay to make him apply for parole, which he has so far steadfastly refused to do.

Firing While Submerged.

Just as the war ended, the British navy had, ready to put into commission, large submarines which, among other novel features, could fire submerged. They are armed with a 12-inch gun mounted so that it could fire with only its muzzle out of water. The submarine had to rise to the surface to reload, but the whole process could be executed in only half a minute.

American Buys Old Chapel.

The Havas agency states that an American has bought the Belle Croix chapel, on the heights of Villeneuve-Avignon, France, which was built by the Carthusian monks in the fourteenth century. The chapel, which contained some fine carving, has been carefully torn down and packed for transit to an unknown destination.

RESTORE CASINO AT OSTEND

Famous Pleasure Resort, Devastated by Huns, Is Being Rapidly Put in Good Condition.

After nearly five years of war Ostend is resuming ordinary life, as far as possible under present conditions. With the reopening of the famous casino, says the Pall Mall Gazette.

Less than twelve weeks ago, says a Reuter telegram, the great salons of the casino were a scene of devastation and wanton destruction. Although occupying so prominent a position on the sea front, the buildings themselves escaped the constant bombardment from sea and air that has transformed so many of the beautiful hotels and villas along the Digue into heaps of rubble, and the use of nine tons of glass has repaired all the damage thus occasioned, but the Germans showed their usual thoroughness in gutting and defiling the salons themselves.

Every stick of furniture was taken away, beautiful tapestries were slashed and torn by German bayonets and every mirror in the halls was removed, together with the copper candelabra in the salons and the beautiful copper staircase.

Not content with robbery, the Germans defiled the rooms in nameless ways and, in fact, left the whole place in a state that would have shamed any animal inhabiting a stable. But since February a miracle has been wrought and but for the fact that some of the more valuable fittings are at present only temporarily replaced by imitation, there will be no evidence of the war, so far as the casino is concerned, when it reopens soon.

RATHER OVERDID THE THING

Friends of Candidate for Government Appointment Laid the Flattery on a Bit Thick.

John L. McNabb, attorney, tells this one on himself: "When I was a candidate for United States district attorney in this district several years ago, my friends procured documents and testimonials without number to substantiate the desired appointment, and a book full of this eulogistic matter was forwarded to President Taft. An outsider reading the documents would have supposed I was a candidate for admission into the heavenly kingdom, so unreserved were the commendations. 'Not long ago I met ex-President Taft while he was in this city. He has a remarkable memory. Shaking me by the hand, he said: 'When I finished reading the grandiloquent reports in your favor some years ago I pictured to myself a man possessed with angels' wings and fit to be the American ambassador extraordinary to the heavenly kingdom. I supposed you were dead at the time, for the report read like an epitaph on a tombstone, so remarkable were the testimonials of your friends in your behalf.'—San Francisco Chronicle.

Criticism and Citizenship

It is the plain, public duty of every citizen to criticize proposed government measures believed to be harmful.

Swift & Company is in a better position perhaps, than others, to understand the meat packing business in all its relations to public and private interests, even though the others may have been giving the subject a great deal of sincere attention.

Swift & Company is convinced that interference with its legitimate business function by governmental agencies, however well intentioned, would be an injury to every man, woman and child who wants meat to eat, as well as to the men who raise the meat and to those who dress and distribute it.

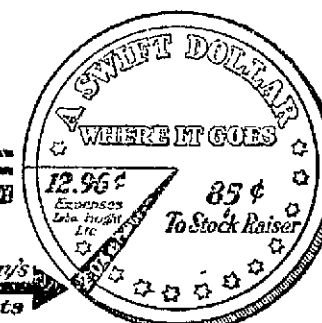

Maximum service that cannot monopolize because of keen competition and lack of control over sources of supply is furnished at a minimum of profit—a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources.

Therefore Swift & Company is taking every legitimate step of citizenship to prevent such interference.

Philanthropic Seattle Man Throws Open Hall for Absolutely Free and Uninterrupted Speech.

A philanthropic fight promoter—one of the enterprising gentlemen who has been in the habit of putting on a boxing match every week or two—is much annoyed at the spasmodic interference of the officers of the law in his business affairs, and is proposing to throw open his hall for a weekly forum of free and uninterrupted speech, in place of the boxing bouts.

"I want every guy that has anything to say to come over and say it," said the promoter, according to the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, "and I'll give him ten minutes to spiel, and then he must shut his trap. I don't care what he is; any kind of a nut can come over and say right out what is on his chest. My luck has been so bad, and my spirits so depressed, that I want a laugh, and I believe a nut gathering of this kind would equal anything the Orpheum circuit or Pantages or the best of them ever put on. You know, nature keeps playing jokes on humanity all the time; she mixes together some queer patterns in heads, and a lot of fellows can't help what they think; some have a hunch for one thing and some for another; I suppose we could get a few startling facts on anything from religion to chess in these verbal tournaments. And it will be absolutely free; I might pass the hat around at the close of the entertainment to square me on the hall rent, but for the rest I wouldn't want a cent to pay outside of the entertainment I get out of it. As soon as I can pull a jazz band together to fit in with the speechmaking I will announce the details, and we will be sure in for a summer's entertainment, if the sheriff don't close us up."

HOMESICK FOR ARCTIC SNOWS

No Affection About the Longing for Far North That Is Experienced by Explorers.

If you are of ordinary health and strength, if you are young enough to be adaptable and independent enough to shake off the influence of books and belief, you can find good reason to be as content and comfortable in the North as anywhere on earth.

If you remember that all of us who have spent more than a year "living on the country," are quite of the Eskimo opinion that no food on earth is better than caribou meat, and if you have any experience in your life as a hunter anywhere, you will realize that in the evenings when we sit in these warm snow houses, feasting with keen appetites on unlimited quantities of boiled ribs, we have all the creature comforts.

What we lack, if we feel any lack at all, will be possibly the presence of friends far away, or the chance to hear opera or see the movies. At any rate, it is true that today in the movie infested city I long for more snow house evenings after caribou hunts as I never in the North longed for clubs or concerts or orange groves. And this is not peculiar to me. The men who have hunted with me are nearly all of the same mind—they are either in the North now, on the way back there by whaling ship, or eating their hearts out because they can't go.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson in Harper's Magazine.

Probably Envious.
"After a few months in other states, I was returning to Indianapolis," remarked a traveling salesman, "and I don't mind telling you I was glad to be getting back home. As I sat down beside the stranger I told him how good it was to be back in the land of cornfields."

"So we started to talk about the beauty spots of Mother Nature. It is nothing more than natural for any Hoosier to talk about his own state. And I had to ask him whether he had ever been in Brown county."

"The stranger looked out of the car window a minute, saying softly to himself: 'Brown county, Brown county.' When he looked around at me again he said:

"Yes, I have been there. That's the place where the squirrels have to carry a lunch with them when they go across the county, is it not?"—Indianapolis News.

Flowers of Poland.

According to an English newspaper correspondent who recently reported a journey he had made from Paris to the Polish capital, the most impressive spectacle that he saw was the mantle of blossoms, clustered profusely, which fringed the highways and byways about Warsaw. "All the wars of Poland," he writes, "could not check the new life that came riding through her borders at the head of the advancing spring; sprays of lilac found place in the gray caps of Polish lancers, tulips and chestnut leaves, tokens of the new dawn, in the garb of peer and peasant. Everywhere was spring yielding back a measure of her everlasting rights." But the flowers never took much notice of the war even "at the front."

	45c per one thousand cubic feet less 3c per thousand. Readiness-to-serve charge 35c per consumer per month.
	The addition of the Readiness-to-serve Charge makes the rate for the first 5,000 cubic feet as follows:—
Coshocton, Ohio.....	First 1,000 cubic feet each month.....77c
	First 2,000 cubic feet each month.....$1.19 or 59½c per thousand
	First 3,000 cubic feet each month.....1.61 or 53-2/3c per thousand
	First 4,000 cubic feet each month.....2.03 or 50¾c per thousand
	First 5,000 cubic feet each month.....2.45 or 49c per thousand

The establishing of these rates in the communities enumerated curtails their use of gas from 29% to 50%, according to the rates charged, and since all natural gas companies supplying gas to Ohio communities draw their supply from the Appalachian gas field, it will be at once apparent that as each additional community, no matter on what company's lines, adopts similar conservation measures, the demand upon the gas fields is lessened to that extent, and if this movement continues to go forward throughout Ohio and in all the neighboring states as promptly as conditions will permit, it is plain that the ultimately desired result, namely, the conservation of supply for future years of use, will certainly be accomplished.

CHARGES MACKS LOADED FOR GAME

B. & O. Team Would Like To Play Mack Squad Which Was Named In Agreement For Sunday's Game.

Charging C. E. McDaniels with unsportsmanlike conduct in springing a seventh hour "statement" regarding the football contest and declaring that McDaniels misstated the facts in the statement, Sandy Murray, manager of the B. & O. football team today declared that he was willing to put his team in the field against the McDaniels team as constituted in the original agreement, the winner to take the entire gate receipts.

Murray declares that McDaniels did not adhere to the agreement as to the personnel of the players who were to take part.

"Every man on the B. & O. team in Sunday's game," said Murray, "has played all season with the team. The same can not be said of the McDaniels team which lined up against us."

"I have no kick to offer on Sunday's game," said Murray, "but the team in the field beat us fairly. It was rough football but that is the game. My kick is on the fact that McDaniels 'loaded up' for us."

"Captain Hager gave me a list of the players he intended to use. I asked for this list as a precaution against 'loading' for us. The list included Myers, Dunn, James, Jones, Johnson, Nichols, Hager, Taylor, Green, Gilmore, Gilmore, two Sullivan and Muller and Miller. The agreement called for these men only."

"I flashed the list Sunday afternoon and we were with the reply 'What are you going to do about it? Send all these people home?'"

"Of course I had no intention of doing anything like that as there was nothing else for the B. & O. boys to do but to play but I maintain that McDaniels' action was not that of a good sport."

"As to the terms made for the game, I tried every sort of a proposition, but was turned down by McDaniels. He offered him 100 per cent of the gate receipts and was refused. I offered 70, 75, 80, 90 and then 55-45. Winner to pay for the advertising but he turned down all of them. As to playing for charity, the members of my team positively refused to play on that basis."

"I maintain that McDaniels again showed his lack of sportsmanship when he issued the statement that he had, giving me no opportunity to reply to it before the game was played. If he was so set on playing for charity he is still free to give his share or any part of it to any charitable cause he may desire."

"McDaniels refused my proposal to toss a coin to decide upon the grounds to be used, which all will agree is the fairest way to decide a question of that character."

"I repeat, the B. & O. team which played the game Sunday, is ready to meet the team listed above, the winner of the contest to take all the gate receipts."

BASKETBALL LG. MEETS ON WED.

Y Industrial Department Getting Ready to Launch Season of Fine Winter Sport—May Have Eight Teams.

The Industrial Basketball league teams will be represented at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday night at 7:30. While interest in basketball in Newark has never been equal to that in base ball, fans will be surprised to hear of the enthusiasm created by the proposed basketball league for the factory men.

One factory which was not represented in the Twilight league has already a squad of more than 20 men out for the plant "varsity" team.

Six teams are certain of starting the league and it is expected that at least two more teams will join the ranks to make it an even eight. Not only would the eight team league be easier to run but interest in the game would be increased.

Among the details to be decided to-morrow night will be the one of factory colors. For instance, Hesse in their advertising use white and blue and as their baseball team used the blue diamond on a white background, the basketball team will use the same color scheme. The other factories may have certain colors which will be used in the coming league. The question of officials for the league, prizes, schedule, etc., will probably be left to the athletic council made up of the athletic representatives on the service committees.

SAID INFIRMITY MADE WIFE TAUNT HIM

Charging that she taunted him and made fun of his physical deformity until it became unbearable and he could stand it no longer, Clinton Stinger has filed a petition for divorce from Almira Stinger in common pleas court.

The parties were married June 30, 1901, and are the parents of two girls, aged 15 and 18 years. The petition recites that the defendant owns a farm of 100 acres in McKean township, which is reasonably worth $7,000, and that the legal title to the land is held by the defendant; that the live stock, farming implements and crops are worth at least $500; that the defendant is the owner of mortgages on real estate amounting to $100, has two Liberty bonds valued at $150, $331 in the bank and checks of the Ohio Fuel company for $200.

The petition further alleges that the defendant is guilty of gross neglect of duty in that she refuses to cook, mend or do the washing for the plaintiff and is also guilty of extreme cruelty in that she has frequently assaulted plaintiff by striking, scratching and wounding him, and has called him vile and obscene names. He also alleges that she has said that "it would give her the greatest pleasure in the world to go to his funeral."

Stinger asks the court to enjoin his wife from disposing of the property, to grant him a divorce and make an equitable division of the property.

Phil. B. Smythe is the attorney for the plaintiff.

LESSONS IN OPTOMETRY BY O. P. COOK

LESSON ONE

What is Optometry? Optometry is the science of measuring the various errors of vision, and supplying the proper glasses for their correction.

Is Optometry growing in importance and scope? Yes, it is fast assuming its position as an essential to human advancement.

Are the public as familiar with Optometry as they should be?

By no means. Optometry is far more important than the majority of people have any idea of.

Who is interested in Optometry? Every person whose eyes are in an abnormal condition.

What percentage of people have abnormal vision? Approximately 70 per cent.

Would these seven in ten people be the better for securing the aid of an Optometrist?

Unquestionably, as their efficiency and enjoyment of life would be increased.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of delightful "Danderine" at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. After several applications the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dandruff. Your hair will grow strong, thick and long and appear soft, glossy and twice as beautiful and abundant. DRYS TO FILE DEMAND FOR ELECTION RECOUNT

Columbus, Nov. 11.—A copy of the demand made yesterday on the secretary of state for a recount on the proposal to endorse the action of the state legislature in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment will be filed with the clerk of the Franklin county courts here some time today. The action will complete compliance with the Ohio laws in such matters, thereby paving the way for further action, according to dry leaders.

Arrival of the official returns of Hamilton county, where important gains for the wets have been recorded in the past few days, is expected today, according to officials in the secretary of state office. The drys have a lead of 120 votes but this would be turned into a wet majority of 644 if official results in Hamilton county substantiate wet claims that an error of 764 votes had been discovered, which would turn the tide in their favor.

Should court action be sought dry leaders predicted yesterday that it might be weeks or even months before the final result is known.

HIGH SCHOOL EDITORS VISIT NEWSPAPER SHOP

While at the convention of representatives of high school publications in Cleveland the Newark delegates were taken through the plant of the Cleveland Press. All the delegates were interested in the modern methods of newspaper publishing. More than an hour was spent in the plant looking over the various machines of the paper.

At the banquet on Friday evening the convention was addressed by prominent newspaper men of Cleveland including Victor Morgan, editor of the Cleveland Press and E. C. Harwood, managing editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Dr. Thwing, president of Western Reserve university gave the opening address in which he welcomed the delegates to the convention. BANK CLERK SAYS "DRECO" PROVED A GOOD INVESTMENT

Is Connected With Central National Bank of Chillicothe and Declares He Gained 12 Pounds on Three Bottles.

Relieved Stomach Disorder, Dizzy Spells, Nervousness and Gave Him Fine Appetite.

Hardly a day passes but what some good responsible person openly declares Dreco has given them splendid results. Professional men, farmers, machinists, bankers, railroad men, nurses all say Dreco has proven a great blessing to them by restoring their health and strength. For instance Mr. Shackelford Snodgrass, a highly thought of employee of the Central National Bank of Chillicothe, O., says:

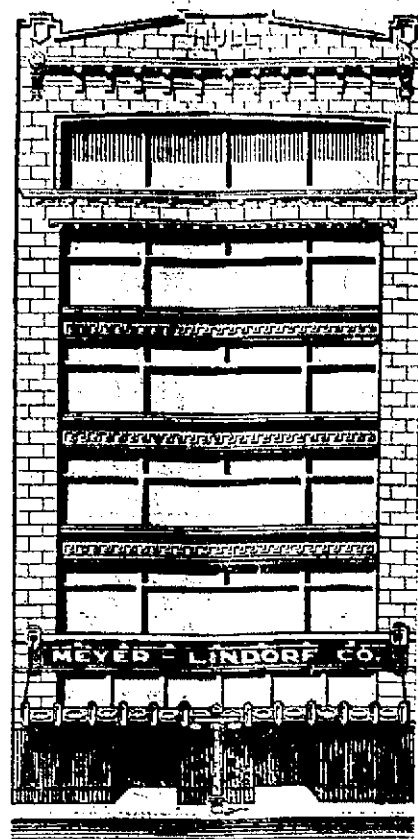

"I am glad to openly endorse Dreco for the good it did me. I have taken three bottles and gained twelve pounds. In addition to this Dreco worked my liver off thereby overcoming dizzy spells I used to have. I sleep well and have a good appetite now. Dreco proved a good investment for me and I gladly recommend it to the public."

Any remedy that restores the natural functions of the human body is a health-making remedy. The use of Dreco, the great herbal medicine, tends to restore the appetite, to procure natural digestion, which is followed by an increased circulation and nutrition of the whole body.

Lean, hardy, bright, less people begin to gain weight, strength and flesh at once from taking Dreco, as they themselves declare in signed statements.

Dreco is the pure liquid extract of many roots, herbs, barks, leaves, which act on the vital organs of the body. After taking Dreco it is noticed that the stomach is soothed and the gassy condition eliminated; the liver becomes active, relieving headaches, that dulled out feeling; nerves are quieted which induces sound sleep; the kidneys are strengthened; appetite increased; bowels act with ease and regularity and the whole system takes on renewed energy, vigor and vitality. Dreco is harmless, pleasant to take and the effects quickly felt.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Newark by Evans' Cut Rate Drug Store.
